

A FEARLESS CONFESSION

I love the Lord my God with all my heart and with all my soul and with all my strength and with all my mind; and I love my neighbor as myself. (Luke 10:27)

I shall not be afraid of evil tidings; my heart is firmly fixed, trusting [leaning on and being confident] in the Lord. (Ps. 112:7)

I will not fear [there is nothing to fear] for the Lord is with me. I do not look around [to my circumstances] in terror. I will not be dismayed, for the Lord is my God. He will strengthen me and harden me to difficulties. He WILL help me. He will hold me up and retain me with His [victorious] right hand of righteousness and justice. (Isaiah 41:10)

The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear or dread? The Lord is the Refuge and Stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid? (Ps. 27:1)

No weapon formed against me shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against me in judgment I shall show to be in the wrong. This peace, righteousness, security and triumph over opposition is my heritage because I am a servant of the Lord; this is the right standing with God or the vindication that I have obtained from Him (Isaiah 54:17)

Jesus has left His peace with me. His own peace he has given and bequeathed to me. Not as the world gives has He given to me. I will not let my heart be troubled; neither will I let it be afraid. [I will stop allowing myself to be agitated and disturbed; and I will not permit myself to be fearful and intimidated; I will not let myself be cowardly and unsettled. (John 14:27)

There is no fear in love [dread does not exist], but full grown [complete and perfect] love turns fear out of doors and expels every trace of terror! God's love has been poured out in my heart by the Holy Spirit who has been given to me. I confess that I have reached the full maturity of love. I am grown into love's complete perfection; therefore, I will not fear. (I John 4:18; Romans 5:5)

I leave no room for the devil [I give no opportunity to him]. I am filled unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ (the Anointed One and His Anointing). (Eph. 4:13&27)

I am useful and helpful and kind to others, tenderhearted [compassionate, understanding, loving hearted]. I forgive myself and others [readily and freely], as God in Christ (the Anointed One) forgave me. I walk in love [esteeming and delighting in others] as Christ (the Anointed One) loves me and gave Himself up for me. (Eph. 4:32; Eph. 5:2)

I am quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to take offense and get angry. (James 1:19)

I cease from anger and forsake wrath; I fret not myself—it tends only to evil doing. (Ps.37:8)

God did not give me a spirit of timidity [of cowardliness, of craven and cringing and fawning fear], but [He has given me a spirit] of power and of love and of a calm and well balanced mind and of discipline and self-control. (ITim.1:7)

I do not fret or have any anxiety about anything, but in every circumstance and in everything, by prayer and petition [definite requests], with thanksgiving, I continue to make my wants known to God, and the peace of God that passes all understanding guards my heart and my mind in Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:6&7)

For though I walk in the flesh, I do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of my warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, I bring every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when my obedience is fulfilled. (2 Corinthians 10:3-6 NKJV)

I roll my works upon the Lord [I commit and trust them wholly to Him; He will cause my thought to become agreeable to His will, and] so my plans shall be established and succeed. (Proverbs 16:3)
